~~$349.95~~ $299.95

A simple desk that molds to any room or home décor.

A simple desk that molds to any room or home décor. The home office desk from the Dover Edge® collection keeps it straightforward, while fulfilling all your needs of a desk. The top surface of this home office desk with door has enough room for a laptop, cup of pens, lamp, or a large monitor. This home office desk with storage features an open area for organizing bins, controllers, home décor, and more. A small computer desk with shelving can provide an option for the kids' room, spare bedroom, kitchen nook or anywhere you need a desking solution. This desk includes hidden storage behind a door for all of those “must keep” items, that usually end up as clutter. Finished on all sides for versatile placement, this computer desk will look polished from every angle. Finished in a Glacier Oak®, this desk is best for homework, gaming, and everything in between.
