~~$209.95~~ $179.95

Create a convenient seating option while adding versatile storage to your home with this storage bench from the North Avenue collection.

Create a convenient place in your home to tie your shoes and store them too, all while adding the style that you love with this storage bench from the North Avenue® collection. This entryway bench features a spacious seat that creates the perfect spot to slip on your shoes in the morning, kick off your boots at night, or an extra spot for your guests to relax. The seat flips up to reveal a hidden storage area that includes a divider for you to organize and store anything from books and blankets to jackets and handbags. It has a place for all your things! This storage bench with seating also features a lid stay for safety. The lower grate-styled shelf provides you with additional storage space that is ideal storage for shoes or easy-access storage of just about anything. Its multifunctional design and charming good looks make this bench a great addition for any room. Finished on all sides in Sindoori Mango® and detailed with a durable, black metal frame, this entry bench with storage is everything you need and more. This item is for residential use only.
