This office credenza from the Rollingwood® collection is an essential furniture piece for any modern home office space.

This office credenza from the Rollingwood® collection is an essential furniture piece for any modern home office space. This credenza with file drawer features a durable, 1" thick top, making it easy to handle and assemble but sturdy enough to accommodate the heaviest books. This home office credenza features a file drawer with full extension slides that holds letter or legal-size hanging files—keeping your files organized and easy to find. Storage behind the framed, safety-tempered glass doors features an adjustable shelf for customizable options. Your binders, books, folders, and more can easily be arranged and conveniently stored in this storage credenza. Use the open storage area for an extra place to house or to display your home décor. A cord management system helps to corral cord clutter and allows for easy charging of your phone or laptop. Finished in Brushed Oak™, this credenza cabinet adds timeless flare to your home office.
