(433509)*$199.95

Add a bold and casual statement to any room in your home with this side table with door from the Tiffin Line® collection.

Does your living room need an upgrade? Add a bold and casual statement to any room in your home with this side table with door from the Tiffin Line® collection. This end table with open shelf offers a spacious top surface, providing the ideal amount of space for storing and displaying all your chairside and bedside needs – like an accent lamp, alarm clock, framed photos, and a refreshing drink. A side table with open shelf allows storage of books, magazines, décor, and more. The door features a rattan insert and can be hung to open left or right. This hidden storage area provides additional space to stow away miscellaneous items like blankets, games, extra remotes, and other stuff to keep out of sight. Finished on all sides for versatile placement, this end table with door will look polished next to your couch, a guest bed, down the hallway, or just about wherever. A Raven Oak® finish accompanied with black door handle and tapered feet give this side table with open storage a unique look that is sure to enhance any home.
